

YURTS
of
UTAH

DINNER YURTS:

YURT 20 SOLITUDE DINNER YURT

Location: Big Cottonwood Canyon, Solitude Mountain Resort

Length: .25 miles one-way

Size: Intimate – room for parties of 26

Amenities: Tables, chairs, lanterns, wood stove, snowshoes

Introduction: For an adventurous fine dining experience, visit The Yurt at Solitude. Less than a half-mile snowshoe tour through a moon and lantern lit forest brings guests to a Mongolian yurt and one of the most unique dining experiences in Utah. Chefs prepare a memorable four-course dinner right before your eyes.

The Yurt at Solitude is available Thursday through Sunday evenings during the winter season.

Location: Depart from the Powderhorn Adventure Center in Solitude Village, Entry 2.

Season: December to April, Thursdays through Sundays.

Reservations: Please call 801.536.5765 to make a reservation. Guests meet at Powderhorn Adventure Center at 5:30 p.m. Thursday - Saturday and at 5 p.m. on Sundays.

Fee: $135 per person; dinner, corkage, guide, tax and gratuity are included.

Other: Adults over 13 years of age are invited. For more information, please visit solitudemountain.com/yurt.

