

YURTS of UTAH

YURT 30 MONTE CRISTO YURT

Location: 30 min north of Huntsville, Utah

Length: ~7 miles (6.5 miles of groomed road and ~half mile of un-groomed road) Late spring/fall you can drive directly to the yurt.

Elevation: Trailhead: 6,575' Nearby trails take you up over 8700'

Size: 24ft diameter. Sleeps 10 adults comfortably.

Amenities: This is a brand new yurt (2019). Bunk beds with 3-inch sleeping pads are provided. Double-burner propane camp stove for cooking, large circular table, and folding chairs. Food prep counter space, kitchenware (an assortment of pots, pans, dishes, and utensils), and a designated large snow melting pot for water. Wood burning stove, heat activated stove fan to heat up the yurt faster, and a stove top thermometer to help guests keep the stove burning at the ideal burn temperature. An enclosed woodshed stocked with split firewood (hardwood, which burns hotter and longer) that is dry! An outdoor, enclosed pit toilet. A solar powered lighting system, which provides excellent lighting. An assortment of board games and many decks of playing cards are provided. Coat and helmet hooks are provided to allow your gear to dry and to keep it off the ground.

Introduction: Monte Cristo Yurt is remote up in the mountains, yet only a short drive away. The yurt sits up high on a gorgeous deck that is tucked up against a grove of trees. The panoramic views here are endless and stunning. The yurt is less than a mile off of Ant Flat Road (groomed in the winter), which connects you to hundreds of National Forest trails to explore. You can't beat the snowmobiling here in the winter! In the non-winter months the trails provide several days of fun exploring.

Directly east of the yurt there is a large hillside that provides some fun quick turns in fresh powder or a long tubing hill for the kids. In the winter the trail to the yurt follows a groomed snow packed road for 6.5 miles and then you would cross a non-groomed road for ~.5 miles. Snowmobile rentals are available from the parking lot (if you come from the Monte Cristo side) and makes for a fast and fun trip over to the yurt. You can also cruise over to Hardware Ranch for a yummy hot meal and see the elk there.

Snowshoeing and cross country skiing to the yurt is also a fun option if you want a workout and a longer trip in. The trail over to the yurt is not steep, but it does have several up and downs. Coming in from the Logan side, you would

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
LAND BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT
RANNEY MAP
UTAH
CENTRAL MOUNTAINS SHEET

park at Hardware Ranch and either snowmobile, snowshoe, or ski the 8.5 miles to the yurt. This is a spacious yurt that is well stocked. The location is superb in providing a unique base camp to a plethora of activities year round.

Season: The yurt is open for reservations year round. This area is a recreation mecca with miles and miles of national forest trails less than a mile away! Dirt biking, riding ATVs and UTVs, horseback riding, and hiking are all very popular and very accessible spring/fall. In the wintertime, this area is one of the best areas to go snowmobiling! Trails and trails and trails. We can share some fabulous maps and areas to go check out.

Reservations: Please call 801-644-5741 or book online at utahyurt.com

Fees: $125/night Monday–Thursday; $200/night Friday–Sunday.

Other: For more information, please visit utahyurt.com

G A R F I E L D
M^t Holmes
M^t Ellsworth

UTAH
CENTRAL MOUNTAINS SHEET

YURTS
of UTAH

UTAH
CENTRAL MOUNTAINS SHEET